BROWN RUDNICK CHARITABLE FOUNDATION CORP. SEEKS PROPOSALS FOR ITS 2007 *RELATIONSHIP GRANTS

Non-profits working to improve inner-city education in Boston, MA, Providence, RI, Hartford, CT, and New York, NY are encouraged to apply

Boston, MA, June 27, 2006 – Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation Corp., a non-profit, tax-exempt entity established by Brown Rudnick Berlack Israels LLP, is accepting proposals for its 2007 Relationship Grants. The Foundation's Relationship Grant program seeks to improve inner-city education by developing a relationship with a non-profit organization that optimally includes providing financial support, pro bono legal representation and volunteer time. Relationship Grants are awarded annually to organizations that have demonstrated both the need for funding and the willingness to develop an effective volunteer effort with the Foundation. The grant applications and an explanation of the program can be found at www.brownrudnickcenter.com/foundation. The deadline for submitting proposals is September 18, 2006.

According to Albert W. Wallis, executive director of the Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation Corp., "Since the inception of our grant program, we have provided hundreds of children with new opportunities to learn about history, art, and science, to improve reading skills, and to experience their communities through innovative educational programs. Now in our sixth year of awarding grants, we set our sights on extending our reach into those communities in which we live and work. We are focused on the work ahead."

The Foundation is presently supporting 15 one-year Relationship Grants in Boston, Hartford, New York and Providence. Many former grant recipients have also been beneficiaries of Brown Rudnick's volunteer support and pro bono legal representation.
