BROWN RUDNICK RECOGNIZED FOR PHILANTHROPY AND CITIZENSHIP

Boston, MA, September 8, 2008 – For the second consecutive year, Brown Rudnick was recognized by the Boston Business Journal as a philanthropic leader among Greater Boston businesses. Last Friday, at the Journal's third annual Corporate Philanthropy & Citizenship Summit, the Firm was named one of the top charitable contributors in Massachusetts for its donation of pro bono services and charitable grants.

The award celebrates the work of Brown Rudnick's Center for the Public Interest and Charitable Foundation, and illustrates the Firm's enduring commitment to the local community.

In 2007, the Boston Business Journal awarded the Corporate Philanthropy Partner of the Year Award to Brown Rudnick for its ongoing partnership with the Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts of Massachusetts (VLA). Through its Center for the Public Interest, Brown Rudnick has been partnering with the VLA to provide pro bono legal services and educational programming to low-income and indigent artists in Massachusetts, and to support and encourage art education in Boston Public Schools.
