BOSTON AND HARTFORD EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS RECEIVE GRANTS FROM BROWN RUDNICK CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Insight/Foresight Grants support programs for pre-school, elementary and high school students

Boston, MA, May 3, 2006 – The Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation Corp., a non-profit, tax-exempt entity established by attorneys from Brown Rudnick Berlack Israels LLP, today announced that it has awarded three of its Insight/Foresight Grants to:

- The Hattie B. Cooper Community Center in Boston for the purchase of supplies for their pre-school art program;
- The Wadsworth Athenaeum Museum in Hartford to help provide 21 buses to bring inner-city public school students to the museum exhibits as part of their Free Bus and Admissions Program; and
- The Watkinson School in Hartford to fund its SPHERE program (Supplementary Program for Hartford Educational and Reinforcement Enrichment). Specifically, the grant will support a field trip that is part of a five-week summer educational program for Hartford elementary school students.

Comments Albert W. Wallis, executive director of the Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation Corp., “We are delighted to award Insight/Foresight Grants to these important educational programs, and we applaud the recipients for their innovation in providing hands-on learning opportunities for children.”

The Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation’s Insight/Foresight Grant Program provides funding to assist educators with small, concrete projects or needs, which will make an improvement in inner city education in Boston, Hartford, Providence or New York within the coming year. The grant applications and an explanation of the program can be found at <http://www.brownrudnickcenter.com/foundation/ifgrant.asp>.
