BROWN RUDNICK CHARITABLE FOUNDATION SEEKS PROPOSALS FOR ITS 2006 RELATIONSHIP GRANTS

Non-profits working to improve inner-city education in Boston, MA, Providence, RI, Hartford, CT, and New York, NY are encouraged to apply

Boston, MA, June 27, 2005 – Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation Corp., a non-profit, tax-exempt entity established by Brown Rudnick Berlack Israels LLP, is accepting proposals for its 2006 Relationship Grants. The Foundation's Relationship Grant program seeks to improve inner-city education by developing a relationship with a non-profit organization that optimally includes providing financial support, pro bono legal representation and volunteer time. Relationship Grants are awarded annually to organizations that have demonstrated both the need for funding and the willingness to develop an effective volunteer effort with the Foundation. The grant applications and an explanation of the program can be found at www.brownrudnickcenter.com/foundation. The deadline for submitting proposals is September 15, 2005.

According to Albert W. Wallis, executive director of the Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation Corp., "Since 2001, the Foundation has awarded dozens of Relationship Grants which have helped bring meaningful education-related programs to inner-city students. Our work has only just begun, however, and as we look toward 2006, we aim to extend our reach into urban communities to effect positive social change."

This past year, the Foundation awarded grants to ten non-profit organizations across Boston, MA, Providence, RI, Hartford, CT, and New York, NY. Many former grant recipients have also been beneficiaries of Brown Rudnick's volunteer support and pro bono legal representation.
